Natural Wine Tasting & Talk with Ed Trebets of Urban Vintner

You've heard rumblings about them, maybe you've seen some, maybe you still want to know what all the fuss is about...

NATURAL WINES!!!

Join us for a tasting of leading Natural Wines, including bottles from Stolpman, Dirty & Rowdy, GEN Fuerza Tranquila & more.

As we settle into our tasting, Ed Trebets of Urban Vintner (formerly of Debonne) and current professor of Enology at Kent State will give a lecture on the role of sulfur in winemaking, why it would be desirable (or not) to leave it out and what relationship sulfur addition has to the Natural Wine movement.

We will end the night with a tasting of wines from Ed's current project, Urban Vintner.
